Celebrating the Caribbean's Good Guys - TOTALLY ROYAL ESCAPE, Nevis's First and Only Luxury All-Inclusive Package Extended into 2007

NEVIS, West Indies, July 20, 2006 – With all the attention being focused on the Pirates of the Caribbean, Nisbet Plantation's "Totally Royal Escape" all-inclusive package is intended to remind the world there were also many "good guys" plying the Caribbean's high seas in the 1800's. And there is perhaps none more famous than Admiral Horatio Nelson.

"At Nisbet we treat our guests like royalty," said Bev Plachta, half of the husband-wife General Manager team. "Totally Royal Escape commemorates the resort's regal history as the home of 'Fanny' Nisbet, the loving wife of Britain's most famous naval hero - Admiral Horatio Nelson."

As a young man Nelson was commander of the Leeward Island Squadron stationed in Antigua. He made many trips to Nevis where he met and eventually wed Fanny Nisbet. Although Nelson appeared on the scene sometime after the "golden age of Caribbean piracy" he was charged with upholding law and order in the region.

In response to continued strong customer demand, Nisbet Plantation, is extending the island's first and only all-inclusive package into 2007. Designed to treat guests royally, "Totally Royal Escape" includes:

- Six-days/five-nights in a beautifully renovated cottage
- Daily breakfast at the beach
- Daily lunch at Coconuts Beach Bar
- Afternoon Tea
- Gourmet dinner nightly at Nisbet's newly air-conditioned Great House
- All drinks including wines by the glass and top-shelf liquors (bottled wines from the plantation's cellar are extra)
- Mini-bar restocked daily
- Two free one-hour massages
- Complimentary airport/hotel ground transfers

Rates for the six-day/five-night package in 2007 start at $3,425 per couple, depending on season and room type, and exclude 10% service charge and 9% government tax.

Vacationers can make a birthday or anniversary extra special with Nisbet's "Totally Royal Escape" all-inclusive package. They will also receive a vacation they will treasure for a lifetime as they help celebrate Caribbean's Good Guys.

About Nisbet Plantation

Nisbet is the Caribbean's only historic plantation inn located on the beach. Since air conditioning wasn't an option in the 1700's and 1800's, most of the great plantation houses were built in the mountains where temperatures were a bit cooler. Nisbet is indeed a rarity – a plantation inn with its own private beach.

The hotel is in the process of completing a million dollar plus renovation which so far has seen the addition of a new spa treatment room, beachfront hot tub, a fitness centre, air conditioning the Great House dining room and updating the Premiere and Deluxe cottages. The Superior cottages are slated to be updated in August and September and be ready for when the resort reopens October 18, 2006.

Nisbet Plantation is regularly named one of the top ten values in the Caribbean and voted one of the "world's best" by the readers of Travel + Leisure. It was proclaimed one of the "world's best places to stay" in the Condé Nast Traveler's 2005 Gold List and TripAdvisor.com rates Nisbet as the most popular hotel on the island of Nevis. A favorite of honeymooners and lovers, it was also named "one of the top 10 most romantic resorts in the Caribbean," by TheKnot.com, the leading web site for weddings and honeymoons.

Nisbet Plantation's beautifully restored Great House — which dates from 1778 — and 36 charming cottages with all modern conveniences are set in 30 acres of lush tropical foliage. A broad lawn, flanked by stately royal palm trees, sweeps down from the Great House to a half-mile-wide white sand beach. A lovely freshwater pool, restaurant and bar are located directly on the beach. Guests can play tennis, croquet or go snorkeling at Nisbet, and keeping with the resort's value-added focus, the use of all sporting equipment is complimentary.

The island of Nevis, where no hotel is higher than a palm tree, is as welcoming and relaxing as the resort. Locals smile and say "good morning" to visitors and the people at Nisbet Plantation go out of their way to please guests.
